TALE IS CHEAP.—And so are fine clothing, boots, shoes, and gentlemen's and boys' fine furnishing goods, if you go to the right place to get them. This is a mighty important point, for some people who assert that they sell cheap do nothing of the kind. I do not boast when I say that I defy competition in prices in anything in my line. Besides this I have only one price. I have no preferred customers. Everybody is treated alike at my establishment. My stock is the largest and most complete ever offered in any part of this State.

Everything I have is new. No old, musty and out-of-date goods can be found on my shelves. I receive daily by rail and express the latest and best goods, which are obtained at first hand and sold at prices below those now prevailing in New York and Chicago. Let the people come and judge of my prices, and examine my stock before going into those humbugging, Cheap John shops, in which they draw into the ear of the customer that they sell at cost and even below cost. Anybody with common sense must know that they lie. No store-keeper sells goods for the fun of the thing. I make a profit on everything I sell, as every honest merchant does, and don't print foolish falsehoods in the vain hope of deceiving the public. One must make a profit to live. I particularly call attention to my full stock of fancy underwear, such as is kept nowhere else in Reno. This class of goods forms one of my specialties. Remember the place. OUR LONDON LETTER.

An Agricultural Fair in England—Invitations From the Prince of Wales—What England is Doing to Meet the Growing Competition of the United States—Improvements in British Methods of Tilling the Soil—etc.—etc.

(From our Regular Correspondent.)

LONDON, June 21, 1879.

The Royal Agricultural Society of England is about to embark upon a spirited enterprise. Invitations have been issued in the name of the Prince of Wales, President of the Royal Agricultural Society, and of the chairman and members of its council, with an intimation that from the 30th of June until the 7th of July an International Agricultural Exhibition will be held at Kilburn, "for horses, cattle, sheep, pigs, asses, mules, goats, hogs, seed, corn, wool, butter, cheese, hams, bacon, meat, cider, bees and hives." Prizes to the value of nearly fourteen thousand pounds are to be awarded and distributed among successful competitors, and it is expressly added that "all prizes for live stock are open to foreign and colonial, as well as to British, owners of animals eligible to compete." There was once a time when it was reproachfully alleged that agriculture, if, indeed, it could be called a science at all, was the least progressive of sciences. The taunt, unjust when it was first uttered some sixty years ago, is altogether out of date at the present day. The universal and never-ceasing necessity imposed upon the human race of supplying food for the sustentation of every corporal frame has so quickened the energies and stimulated the intelligence of food-producers in all countries that agriculture, and the kindred employment of bringing four-footed animals of all kinds to perfection, have long taken their places among finished sciences. By means of extensive enclosures, large expenditure of capital in draining, improved systems of alternate croppings, ceaseless importations of foreign and increased elaboration of domestic manures, by the cultivation of root crops, ameliorated breeds of horses, cattle, sheep, pigs and poultry, the application of mechanical ingenuity to the improvement of agricultural implements, and by a judicious economy in seed and labor an amount of new and efficient activity has, step by step, been called into being, with a view to enabling the British farmer to meet the discouragements of low prices by the increased productivity of the acres committed to his charge. Nor have the results attained been unworthy of the sagacious efforts put forth with a view to their realization. Not many days ago a prize-winning Clydesdale mare was sold by a Scotch farmer to Mr. Angus, of Australia, for seven hundred guineas, and it is incontestable that the domestic four footed animals raised in these islands have advanced to a degree of perfection unexampled in any other country.

Nothing, indeed, is more certain than that the existing depression and hard times through which the agricultural is passing can alone be met by bringing increased capital and brains to bear upon the cultivation of fields, and the Royal Agricultural Society of England has played a distinguished and useful part in teaching the middling and lower grades of farmers that their sole hope of surviving consists in the adoption of systems practiced by their more wealthy and enlightened brethren. Farming, like driving a gig, was in former times supposed to be one of those natural accomplishments which demand no imparted skill, no special education, and until the late Mr. Pusey published a series of essays, in which he endeavored to teach the farmers of England how to meet the necessities of the times, but little had been done to controvert the theory that agriculturists had a congenial aptitude for the pursuit of a most difficult and complicated science. In 1811 the average produce of wheat in England was but twenty-six bushels an acre, and Mr. Pusey showed that if it could be raised to twenty-seven bushels, there would be an addition of four hundred and seventy-five thousand quarters to the nation's income, "worth, at fifty shillings a quarter, about one million two hundred thousands pounds, which would be equal to a capital sum of twenty-four millions gained forever to the country by this trifling increase in the growth of one agricultural staple alone in England and Wales." At present the value of a quarter of wheat is less by ten shillings than in 1841; and, besides there is a competition from foreign parts, especially the United States, which, is more likely to grow in pressure and continuity than to decrease, and is supplemented by such an importation of meat, dead or on the hoof, as is full of serious menace to our domestic raisers of stock. Under these circumstances it is more than ever necessary for farmers to sit at the feet of those agricultural Gamaliels to whom the Royal Agricultural Society has long offered the encouragement of substantial prizes backed up by its tribute of approbation. "Science with Practice" is the motto impressed upon the Society's seal, and in many of its reports it has quoted with commendation the dictum of Liebig, to the effect that "agriculture is both an art and a science; its scientific basis embracing a knowledge of all conditions of vegetable life, of the origin of the elements of plants, and of the sources whence they derive their nourishment."

CROCKERS STATEMENT.

Some Tehama farmers called upon Chas. Crocker the other day, and petitioned for an extension of the railroad. Crocker told them the Co. would build no more roads.

Speaking in regard to finances, Mr. Crocker stated that the Company had put in every dollar of their own money they could borrow (except what they had been foolish enough to put in dwellings, which they would they had their money out of) fifty-four million dollars, and that it had been reported of them that they had made seven, eight and as high as fourteen millions per annum on their investment, which was absolutely false. The facts are that after paying the Sherman bill (and which they now have to pay) last year showed them only a net earning of $730,000. This latter sum is the net proceeds after paying the interest of the immense sum invested which the Company pays.

SHARON'S SALARY.

Notwithstanding the fact that Senator Sharon has been in his seat only two months since he was elected, he has drawn his salary for four years. He was not present at the extra session and we are glad to learn that Burch, the new Secretary of the Senate, states that if Sharon demands his salary for that session, he will, before paying the money, submit the case to the First Comptroller of the Treasury, and obtain a written decision from him concerning his duty in the premises. The law, however, is so clear that it is doubtful if any construction can be placed on it that will give to Sharon money which he never earned. Sections 40 and 41 of the Revised Statutes expressly forbid the payment of salary or mileage to members who absent themselves without sufficient cause.

THE ORATION.

Of all the orations delivered on this Coast on the 14th of John F. Swift, of San Francisco, was the best. It should be read and reread by every citizen and taxpayer, and the lesson it teaches should never be forgotten. The oration is a masterly dissertation of the live issues of to-day; those which ought to seriously engage the attention of all who hope to preserve what was gained for us in '76.

ANOTHER LIBEL SUIT.

Libel suits are becoming quite frequent in Nevada. B. Curler, of Belmont has commenced a suit for $50,000 against Chas. Garrett, of the Tybo San. The Sun accused him of taking $1,000 for a decision in a mining suit, while District Judge of the Fifth District.

The American Railroad Gazette, an unquestionable authority on railway statistics, explains how American roads, even with the greatly reduced rates of freight which have prevailed for several years past, have been enabled to not only pay expenses but dividends. The explanation is embraced mainly in one item of economy, the saving of $19,000,000 per annum by the use of steel rails. It is comparatively easy to get at this matter quite accurately. Under the old iron rail system 11 per cent. of all the rails in use had to be relaid annually. In 1878, when the use of steel rails had become general, only 5½ per cent. had to be relaid. More than this, the Gazette figures that to relaid 11 per cent. of the 100,000 miles of railway in this country at the prices which prevailed in 1872 would cost $85,530,000, while 5½ per cent. can be laid at present prices for $18,502,000, a saving of about $67,000,000. Taking as an example for illustration the Erie road, the Gazette says that it paid in 1872 $2,639 per mile for new rails to keep up its track, while in 1878 its track was quality maintained at a cost of $253 per mile for new rails—a saving of $1,800,000 per annum on that road alone. To this convincing exhibit may be added the fact that Mr. Vanderbilt during his recent visit to England made a large contract for steel rails, and every steel rail mill in this country is running night and day on orders which are reported to cover all their product for six months to come.

The Susanville Advocate has been enlarged to a 7-column paper. It is much too good a paper for the patronage we should judge it received.

San Francisco passed over the Fourth with comparatively little loss from fires.

POLITICAL NOTES.

The Grant movement seems to have come to a full stop.

The State Greenback Convention will be held in Utica, N. Y., August 26.

No Ohio man, says the Baltimore American, will accept the office of Prince Imperial.

Senator Burnside's Monroe doctrine resolutions are generally approved by the press.

In paying up its debt North Carolina is setting an excellent example to some of the other Southern States.

Beyond the Potomac Senator Lamar is hailed as "the defender of the South against Northern slander."

A party of Iowa editors recently took a vote on Presidential candidates for 1880. It resulted—Grant, 23; Blaine, 12.

The Missouri Republican thinks Congress could not do a better thing than devise some certain plan of counting the electoral vote.

The Chicago Inter-Ocean suggests that Georgia contribute to the William Lloyd Garrison monument fund the $5,000 it offered for his head.

It seems to the Baltimore Gazette that "the greatest good fortune that has happened to the Democracy has been the executive vetoes raising the issue of the bayonet at the polls."

Maine holds her election September 8. In the present Legislature parties are divided as follows:—Senate—Republicans, 20; Greenbackers, 11. House—Republicans, 65; Greenbackers, 64; Democrats, 22.

In the opinion of the Boston Herald "the Maine Republicans had a happy thought. It was to nominate for Governor a young man, a new man, a soldier with a good record, a believer in the need of economy, a man with no weak spots in his record, and a man in whose favor the argument of locality could be used."

The Buffalo Courier (Democrat) takes a cheerful view of the political future. It is quite probable, it says, that Republican dissatisfaction with the Republican policy in Congress will tell with greater effect in the coming election than Democrat discontent at the so-called surrender, which, in fact, is only a brief postponement of Democratic plans of legislation.

Ex-Governor Shepherd, of Washington, is not, in the opinion of the Troy (N. Y.) Times, as black as he is painted. It says:—"Until some one of the Democratic committees in Congress which have been trying to fasten on Governor Shepherd some trace of crime in connection with his administration of the executive office of the District of Columbia shall succeed, it would comport more with a decent regard for the truth if Democratic journals like the Argus would permit the object of their assaults to attend to his own private business in peace or bring on the proof of his corruption."

The San Francisco Stock Report says: A permanent organization of the Astoria and Winnemucca Railroad Company has been effected, and at a recent meeting of its projectors a resolution was adopted authorizing the President and Vice-President to employ and put engineers in the field at once. One-half the capital stock has already been subscribed. This road, if completed, will traverse the State of Nevada North of Winnemucca, on the Central Pacific, into and across Oregon, not only bringing a large portion of the great agricultural region of that State into railroad communication, but opening up an extensive mineral-bearing country in Northern Nevada and Idaho and giving railroad communication to many mining districts already opened and worked in that section. It is evident that the Company means business, for one-half of the capital stock is already paid up.

"Look pleasant," said the photographer to Charles Frances Adams; "smile a little." Mr. Adams slowly and frigidly smiled. "Mother of Pluto!" howled the artist, "cry a little. That'll help your expression some."

We saw a rifle club practicing at a target the other day, and wondered why they took all that trouble to make the target when they could have hit the side of the hill just as well without it.—[Ex.]

SANFORD'S
RADICAL CURE
For CATARRH
INSTANTLY RELIEVES.

6,000 FEET ABOVE THE SEA.

The following testimonials are from Messrs. J. O. Bosworth & Co., Denver, Col., large and influential druggists. They report unprecedented large sales and universal satisfaction. No other disease is so alarmingly prevalent in that region. They speak of the following gentlemen as among their best citizens:

SOVERELY AFFLICTED.

J. O. Bosworth & Co., Denver, Col., Gentlemen.—Proudest by a fellow-feeling for those afflicted with Catarrh, I wish to read my testimony in behalf of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. I have been severely afflicted with this fearful disease for four years, and have tried every known remedy without avail, until I bought a bottle of the above CURE from you, which gave me almost instant relief. It being a constitutional as well as a local remedy, I believe it to be all that is claimed for it, a radical cure for Catarrh.

Very truly yours, WM. AMETIVE,
Denver, Sept. 23, 1873. With Jenson, Bliss & Co.

GREATLY AFFLICTED.

Messrs. J. O. Bosworth & Co., Denver, Col., Gentlemen.—I take pleasure in recommending SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH to all who are afflicted with this disease. I was greatly afflicted with it for a long time, and cured it with two bottles of the above CURE. About a year afterwards I was again taken with Catarrh, and I immediately sent for another bottle, which cured me all right, giving me relief from the first dose. I can now perform my duties as usual, and I therefore take pleasure in recommending it to all afflicted with Catarrh of any kind, and offer this as my testimony to its benefits.

Very truly,
J. W. SMITH & DOLL.

TRIED EVERYTHING.

Messrs. J. O. Bosworth & Co., Denver, Col., Gentlemen.—I have used SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH, and it has given perfect satisfaction. I have tried almost everything, and it is the only thing that has given me relief. I therefore take pleasure in recommending it to all afflicted with Catarrh of any kind, and offer this as my testimony to its benefits.

Very truly,
W. S. DECKER.

REV. J. H. WIGGIN SAYS:

One of the best remedies for Catarrh, I say, the best remedy we have found in a lifetime of suffering, is SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE. It is not unpleasant to take through the nose, and there is no pain, and each bottle is small, and easy to use. It cures the head and throat so thoroughly that, taken each morning on rising, there are no unpleasant secretions and no discharge, and the patient is able to perform his duties as usual, and I therefore take pleasure in recommending it to all afflicted with Catarrh of any kind, and offer this as my testimony to its benefits.

Fearfully Fatal.

We recorded a few days ago about the entire Bristol family being down with scarlet fever. Since that time the dread disease has slaughtered the members of that family with a fearful hand. Five, if not six, have fallen a prey to the disease and the rest are at the point of death. We announce this morning the latest death, but how soon will it be before still another will go to join those gone before? A subscription paper has been started for the relief of the distressed family and our kind hearted people are subscribing liberally. If possible the Bristol case is worse than was the Johnson case of a few months ago.

At the regular monthly meeting of the

M. E. Sunday School last Sunday, the picnic committee presented their report of the late picnic to "Dowers". This report shows that the expenses were $127; receipts $125 50; deficiency $1 50. It was liquidated on the spot.

Commissioners.

The following town business was transacted yesterday.

The petition of B. H. Jamison and others for the removal of a slaughter house in Evans' North Addition was read, and laid on the table. No action taken, as an existing ordinance provides for the removal of such nuisances.

The application of the officers and members of Reno Engine Co., No. 1, for permission to act under the regulations of the board, was read and the application granted.

The petition in relation to closing houses of business on Sunday, was taken up and read. As a full board was not present it was thought advisable to postpone any action in the matter until the next meeting.

Oasis.

The vacant space between the tracks, west of the Depot Hotel, is being covered with a fine soil. It is the intention to make a little oasis there; a fountain will be placed in position, and a beautiful carpet of nature's green, will be the first sight to greet the weary traveler's eye, when the Overland train commences stopping here for meals.

Pardon Case.

Application will be made to the Board of Pardons, at its next meeting, for the pardon of Geo. R. Hutchinson, formerly a resident of Reno, but who was sent to Prison for stabbing his wife in Carson, about one year ago. Judge Wells is Hutchinson's attorney.

Lake & Beck's flour mill will be ready to grind by September 1st. The machinery is expected here this week, and will be put in position as fast as possible.

The swarm of bees on Bender's bank building should be "hived" at once, as that part of the street is unsafe for ladies and children, or gentlemen. A number of passers-by were stung yesterday.

Pinafore is terribly wrecked. The Justice Court is full of the rigging under a sea of attachment. The troupe is scattered far and wide.

The Highland Ditch will not be done until the 1st of September. The work progresses slower than was calculated upon.

M. Weil has some more Eastern figures in another part of this paper. He is pretty near giving away goods.

Persons having unpaid bills against the 4th of July Committee should present them to Chas. Knust.

Two swarms of bees yesterday alighted on the Masonic building. Whence comes these busy bees?

The wind was around again last night. Reno fears the breeze ever since the big fire.

Have you tried Burchard & McClelland's ice cream? It's luscious.

A contract to sink 100 feet of the Mansions shaft has been let.

The deceased were killed by the gasses generated by the fire.

PACIFIC COAST PIONEERS—ELECTION

OF OFFICERS.—At a meeting of the Society of Pioneers, held in Virginia City Monday evening, officers for the ensuing year were elected. Monday was the thirtieth anniversary of the unfurling of the Stars and Stripes on the soil of California. Said Stars and Stripes were first turned loose there July 7, 1847, and they "tuck rogt." Following are the officers elected: President, R. H. Taylor; Secretary, T. B. Storer; Treasurer, S. D. Baker; Marshal, George W. Finney; Librarian, W. Frank Stewart. Directors—J. F. Hall, Frank Morrill, J. S. Peck and S. D. Baker. The following Vice Presidents were elected: For Virginia City, Dr. E. B. Holmes, Miles Goodman and John Knox; Gold Hill, W. D. C. Gibson and Alf. Doten; Ormsby county, Charles Wilson; Lyon county, John Vandewater; Washoe Co., R. P. M. Kelly; Esmeralda Co., Hank Blanchard.

The Herald's China correspondent, who has been examining the condition of the Canton manufactures, writes that the Chinese will not stand the cheap American labor-saving machinery, and although attempts have been made to introduce machines which would enable the workman to treble the quantity of his work and the farmer to hull and clean ten times the quantity of rice, the feeling is so strong among the laborers as to forbid it. The laborers, no matter what their calling, belong to guilds or trade unions, and any attempt to introduce new machines or labor saving methods is resisted.

All the members of the Pacific coast delegations have left Washington, and most of them are already en route across the continent for their homes. Congressman Daggett, when starting for New York a few days ago, said he would probably arrange to return to the Pacific coast by steamer. Delegate Campbell will leave New York to-day for Arizona by railro ad to San Francisco. Both of these gentlemen have laid excellent foundations during the extra session for useful congressional careers, each having formed extensive acquaintances with old and influential members, and having produced in all respects highly favorable impressions.

Here is a nut for the San Francisco Chronicle to crack. The Downieville Messenger assigns that Lauren E. Crane, nominee of the new Constitution Party for Secretary of State, was one of the most bitter opponents of the new Constitution going so far as to take the stump and make a speech against it a few days before election. He is also an employer of a large number of Chinese in the Golden Star mining claim in which he is an owner and until quite recently Superintendent.

The State Conventions of both parties in New York this year will probably be held as early as the middle of August.

This has been decided upon by the Republican Executive Committee. The unusual length of the ticket to be nominated is the chief cause of the change to an earlier date than usual. Besides this, the Republican leaders realize that the campaign is one of greater importance than any which has been fought for years, and they are anxious to get under way as soon as possible.

Speaking of the possible appointment of General Grant as President of the Inter-Oceanic Canal Company, the New York Herald thinks the General would not be caught by such a flattering bait, and adds: "Lesseps has fallen in to the serious mistake of thinking that a little adroit flattery can change the settled purpose of the Government of the United States respecting foreign interference with the affairs of this continent."

Ohio, South Carolina and Tennessee specials report an enormous yield of the staple products. In Ohio the immense crop of wheat is nearly all secured and in the best condition possible, entirely free from rust and weevil. In Tennessee there is also an immense crop of a very superior quality.

The President of the Memphis Board of Health says that the city is now very clean. Since Summer set in there has been a remarkable decrease in the fever usually prevalent at this season of the year. During the last two weeks there has not been a single death from fever of any form. This has not occurred before during any two weeks of June for six years.

HOW NIHILIST PAPERS ARE PRINTED.

The chief Nihilist organ, which is clandestinely distributed throughout Russia, is entitled Semla i Swaboda (Country and Liberty) and is printed in a quarto form. It claims to hold jurisdiction over everybody. It warns, threatens and pardons right and left, and gives prompt and accurate information respecting the carrying out of its sentences, which are those of the Revolutionary Committee. It is found everywhere. It is laid by unseen hands on the master's table, is unexpectedly discovered among the banker's registers, and the Imperial Councillor is astonished to meet with it among his papers; it is slipped furtively between the sheets of conservative journals—in a word, it finds its way as if by enchantment on the tables of the cafes and into the private houses of rich and poor. It appears twice a month and advertises for subscribers. It mentions the Nihilist pamphlets which have appeared, and informs the public that others bearing this or that title are shortly to be published, the prices of which are given, but the editor contents himself with designating the place at which they can be bought as the "well-known place." On the day that General Mesentzeff was murdered the Semla i Swaboda appeared illustrated with a large cartoon, in which the General appeared as lying in state, the first page being occupied with a kind of proclamation giving the reasons which had decided the committee to pronounce sentence of death upon him. Three days after the secret printing offices in St. Petersburg were discovered by the Russian police, a man was assassinated at Moscow, but who he was and why he had been murdered remained a mystery till the Semla i Swaboda published the following notice: "On the 9th of March the traitor Reinstein was executed in the Moscow Hotel, at Moscow. Reinstein, a Polish Jew, disclosed to the police the whereabouts of two of the printing offices. We have had therefore to killed him. The Government need not boast of having made any great discovery. It has found nothing of any value. The editor's portfolio being seized has certainly caused us some inconvenience, but as we never sign any of our articles the affair has no further importance. It will be useless to offer gold; traitors will not be found in our ranks. Reinstein was only an agent—a newspaper distributor. We have at our command considerable sums of money that we can resist all attempts at bribery. The execution of Mesentzeff cost us 6,000 rubles, Kraptokin nearly as much; nevertheless we still possess 400,000 rubles for the accomplishment of our work."

CAPTAIN KIDD.

Any one would naturally suppose that a century or two of the foolishly credulous credulity and stupidity of "digging for Captain Kidd's buried treasure" would be enough to stop the silly performance, which has been going on, at various points along the Atlantic coast, from Maine to New Jersey (and even inland) for the past hundred and fifty years. It is now announced that "A party of treasure seekers have been digging on Little Island, near Westport, recently, for the valuables that the renowned pirate, Captain Kidd, is believed to have buried there." Kidd's treasure is a myth. That eminent pirate did, in 1699, bury certain bales of goods and some treasure on Gardiner's Island, a pretty island, four miles long, near the east end of Long Island, but this was all secured by Bellmont, the Governor of Massachusetts and Connecticut colonies, who dug it all up, and also secured the treasure on board the sloop San Antonio, Kidd's vessel—the entire amount, including what was dug up and what was found on the vessel, aggregated $70,000. The legends that Kidd buried treasures at other places are all baseless; but credulous people have spent more than all the treasure he ever accumulated, in the delusion that Kidd's treasure was buried in scores of designated spots on the shore, and on the banks of certain northern rivers. Kidd was hung, in London, in 1701; and when he was swung off, the only treasure he ever buried had already been dug up by Bellmont.—[Hartford Times.]

That the discovery of the murderer of Mrs. Hull had saved Dr. Hull's life was one of the first thoughts following the announcement of the capture of Cox. How narrow was the escape of the husband of the dead woman from being made a victim of circumstantial evidence is intensified by facts which have just come to light. A man who knew Dr. Hull intimately, directly after the murder informed the authorities at police headquarters that, a short time previous to the tragedy, Dr. Hull had been to him saying, in substance, that he would make it worth this man's while to help him put Mrs. Hull out of the way.

Two or three years ago some of the camels on Carson river were taken away down in Arizona, the intention being to make their servicable as beasts of burden. The attempt was a failure, the climate seeming to disagree with them, and it was found that they were not so useful as the little mules. The owners turned the camels loose, and they roamed about the Gila river apparently enjoying their liberty and profiting by it. They appear to have become acclimated to the region, thriving as though they had been in their own native Africa. It is thought the new generation will be used to the alkaline waters peculiar to the southwestern section, and can be made servicable in transporting the mineral products of the country across the deserts to places where they can be profitably worked.

When the conductor made Bonus pay full prices for his boy, Bonus said it wasn't half fair.

THE WAY VANDERBILT ACCREDITED.

When Commodore Vanderbilt was running steamboats, he beat all his rivals by crowding on steam to the utmost, and even running down his enemy if necessary, to accomplish a triumph. When he went into rail roading, he adopted a more shrewd and more successful way, by uniting vast lines and their tributaries under his own management, thus capturing all rivals, by sharing with them the immense pool of profits that were made by his skillful manipulation. Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Bankers, N. Y., accomplish a much greater success in stock operations by their new Combination Method of dealing. By this system the orders of thousands of customers are pooled into one vast sum and co-operated under the most experienced management, thus giving to each shareholder all the benefits of large capital and best skill. Profits divided monthly. Any amount from $5 to $25,000 can be used with great success. $15 will make 75 profit. $80 would return 720 or 9 per cent. on the stock during the month, according to the market. The new circular (mailed free) has "two unerring rules for success" and full explanations, so that any one can operate profitably. Stocks and bonds wanted. Government bonds supplied. Apply to Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 57 Exchange Place N. Y. City.

The lowest grade of ore that can be marketed profitably in Leadville is twenty ounces in silver and forty per cent. in lead, although if somewhat lower in silver and higher in lead some smelters who happen to need lead will pay the full value of all the silver in the ore.

The New York Herald of a recent date published some startling figures showing the annual cost of fire in the United States. According to these figures, the average annual loss from fires is $80,000,000, omitting the great fires of Chicago and Boston.

One Word Covers the Advice.

Which should be given to nervous, slender, and debilitated persons—Intestinal sedatives, opiates, appetizers, are comparatively useless. The system must be built up with a genuine tonic in order to the recovery of vigor and tranquility by the nerves. A course, systematically pursued, of the leading invigorant, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, should be resorted to by those who suffer from weak nerves and general debility. The stomach, always more or less deranged in cases of nervousness and loss of vitality, is toned and regulated by this medicine until the organ acts with a precision akin to that of a steady-going piece of mechanism. Complete digestion and assimilation are, through the influence of the Bitters, followed by a gain of vigor and flesh and the disappearance of biliousness and irregularity of the bowels, where such exist, as they usually do. Appetite and sleep are then regained.

Which combines all the force of other strong explosives now in use, and the lifting force of the perior to any other compound now in use.

A circular containing a full description of this Powder can be obtained on application to our Office, or of any of our Agents,
